GROUNDHOPPER'S VIEWPOINT

STEVE KING

Last month, I asked for your views about the subject of the FA Cup, and whether only clubs who have floodlights should be allowed to enter the competition. Unfortunately, most of you do not seem to have any views one way or the other, as we only received one or two letters on the subject, which is a shame because it would have been interesting to find out what the general opinion is on this particular subject. But of the few letters we did actually receive, most are of the opinion that clubs SHOULD be allowed to compete in the FA Cup even without floodlights. So it would appear that the Barking FC chairman is in the minority when he states that it should be a requirement that only clubs with lights should be allowed in the FA Cup.

One or two people have written in suggesting that we should have a more varied team of contributors instead of the same ones writing in the magazine each month. They feel that the magazine can become a little predictable in its present form, so if you feel you can write an article on groundhopping, or about your travels, or better still, write about clubs who do not get much publicity from the minor leagues, providing details of the grounds and photos if possible, we would very much welcome them for inclusion in future issues.

Our present team of contributors all write about different aspects of groundhopping, from continental football to regional round-ups, and we think it gives a balanced look to the magazine, but if others would also like to contribute, we will always consider anything for publication, so please write in to the usual magazine address.

This month's question for our readers is as follows:-

IS IT GOOD FOR NON-LEAGUE FOOTBALL THAT SO MANY CLUBS ARE MOVING TO NEW GROUNDS?

With the property developers moving in at so many famous old grounds such as Kingstonian, Wycombe Wanderers, etc, is it a case of selling to survive and moving elsewhere or does it have its beneficial side in that apart from securing a club's long-term future financially, it is a good way of replacing antiquated stadiums with modern new ones for the 1990's?

We want to hear from you on this sensitive subject so write to us today at the following address:- QUESTION OF THE MONTH, GROUNDHOPPER MAGAZINE, 439 ARLTON ROAD, WANDSWORTH, LONDON, SW18 5LS. Closing date for your views will be Monday 28th November. We hope to print extracts from the best of the letters we receive on this subject in our "Hopper Post" pages next month, so if you have any views on the subject of clubs moving grounds, drop us a line as soon as possible. Next month, in our special christmas issue, we will have another question about an important non-league subject for our readers to think about.

On Tuesday 13th December, there is a match between BASHLEY FC (Wessex League) and Tottenham Hotspur. This is to commemorate the opening of their new stand. Spurs are hoping to field a mixture of First Team and Reserve Team players including former goalkeeper Ray Clemence. For groundhoppers who wish to attend this match, and have never been to Bashley before, if travelling from London take M3 to the end and join A33 Winchester by-pass, after about 6 miles join M27 westbound. Be careful not to take the Portsmouth Road as this is eastbound. Follow M27 until Junction No.1 turn off signposted the New Forest. At roundabout follow signs to Lydhurst A337 and follow one way system for Bournemouth A35. After 6 miles turn left onto B3058 signposted New Milton until you come into Wootton. Look for the garage on left 20 yards, then turn into Bashley FC. By train, from Waterloo take train to New Milton station then get a taxi as no buses are available....Federated Women's League side RAYNERS LANE would very much like to install floodlights at their ground, but because of the many objectors, they are finding planning permission very difficult to obtain....And sticking with the Federated Women's League, BISHOPS CLEEVE have made a number of impressive ground improvements with new drainage system, enclosed standing area and modernising of the clubhouse all being done since the summer....An amusing incident occurred three minutes from the end of the recent VOL match at RAINHAM TOWN against neighbours Purfleet. The home side were surprisingly leading 1-0 when Purfleet won a free-kick just outside the penalty box. It was taken and the player scored, but Rainham claimed that the ball went through the side of the net. There was then a five minute delay because the home 'keeper refused to give the ball back for the kick-off to take place. Eventually the game restarted after the furious goalkeeper had called the referee a few choice names and was sent off. As he left the field, he then kicked in the gate in anger. And they say the fans are hooligans!....Spotted in

By the time you read this, they will be long gone. These people, who come from Gloucestershire, Devon, and even Milton Keynes, assembled at Cannock in Staffordshire at 5.30am, to travel by minibuses to watch Stenhousemuir v Brechin City in the Scottish second division. These are members of the newly formed ground-hopping nutcase organisation, the Hopper Round Britain Club. This is their third visit to Scotland this year; they were over-subscribed for the trip, and are thinking about expansion.

The organiser is the tireless Steve Peat, programme editor for Hadenston Town of the Heasler Homes League and one of football's super-heroes. He has been to 46 matches so far this season, and said: "The chap who will do our driving on Saturday has already been to 65 or 70, and will reckon on doing 200 by the end of the season. I admit that's going a bit far, because he goes to a game almost every day of the week. When, like me, you've got a wife and a job and don't want to lose either, you've got to be a bit realistic."

The Times newspaper on 22nd October 1988 (see left) a good write-up on the Hopper Round Britain Club which Steve Peat has introduced for those who like to visit places a little out of the ordinary. With groundhopping generally become more and more popular, maybe, just maybe, one day we won't be looked on as nutcases as the writer of this little piece suggested. Oh well, pigs do fly!....On Monday 24th October, around 2,000 fans turned up at HOLYHEAD to watch a Holyhead Select XI beat Rest of Anglesey XI 4-2 to celebrate the official opening of of the Holyhead Football Stadium. The ground will be used by HOLYHEAD TOWN who play in the Gwynedd League and HOLYHEAD UNITED JUNIORS who appear in the Anglesey League. The stadium is one of the most ambitious sporting projects ever undertaken by a local authority. The centrepiece is the lush, almost-natural soccerian playing pitch which looks and feels like grass, but is in fact a man-made plastic carpet. The stadium also comprises a grandstand which will accommodate 500 seated spectators, changing rooms for four teams, and floodlights on eight pylons, as well as a large car park. The cost of the scheme is around £600,000, towards which grants have been obtained from the Football Trust. Incidentally, Holyhead Town hope to produce a programme for the Gwynedd League matches in the not too distant future....Interesting fact time! Did you know that MATLOCK TOWN have never won a match in Wales. Against Bangor City, Caernarfon Town, Rhyl and Colwyn Bay they have played 26 times in Wales, and their record is as follows:- Won 0, Draw 8, Lost 18, Scored 25, Conceded 61. The jinx persisted on September 10th at Caernarfon, losing 2-0 and also goalkeeper Ian Ironside went off with a collapsed lung....Following MARGOTSFIELD TOWN's disappointment at failing to gain election to the Heasler Homes League, the club have begun work on ground improvements, including new fencing along two sides of the ground, extra lights installed on the floodlight pylons, plans for a 254-seat or grandstand and additional covered standing are well advanced...The BBC Children in Need Appeal 1988 gets under way soon, and Ian Runham of the Wirral Prog-

WELSH RABBIT

All the latest news and gossip from the Welsh non-league scene with David Collins

My month here in Wales has been very much dominated by cup football. First came the second round of the Welsh Intermediate Cup, with no shortage of interesting venues but in the end I decided to head for mid-Wales where Llandrindod Wells of the Manweb League were entertaining Llanfair Caereinion of the Spar Amateur League. Our weekend in the pleasant Victorian spa town was certainly dampened by the incessant rain but at least the match went ahead, with the home side scraping through 3-2 thanks to a late penalty. A nice ground with (thankfully) ample cover in a long stand, and Llandrindod issued an attractive white, yellow and blue programme (strange as the club colours are red). A word of warning though: the Broadway ground isn't in the road of the same name, it is in Lant Avenue! Elsewhere in the same round, Welsh League Treharris fell to S.Wales Amateur League champions BSO (Port Talbot).

After a midweek visit to Cardiff City's European win over Gerry, I was back the following Saturday in more normal surroundings: in a crowd of 100 or so, on a windswept, rain-lashed Welsh League ground, and enjoying every minute of it! The venue was Tonyrefail where the Welfare were taking on Knighton Town in the Welsh Cup second round - on paper perhaps not the tie of the round, but an interesting opportunity to compare Abacus Welsh and Manweb League standards. Tonyrefail's rather unexpected 3-1 win generated an excellent atmosphere at this friendly, well-run club as we huddled in the ancient stand amid soonsoon conditions. The Welfare Park is worth a visit - fully enclosed, one side terraced, and a match programme which puts many Welsh League National Division clubs to shame.

Paul Williams puts Tonyrefail Welfare 3-0 up against Knighton in the Welsh Cup.

Llandrindod Wells v. Llanfair Caereinion in the 2nd Round of the Welsh Intermediate Cup.

Clydach United completed a Welsh League double over the Manweb League, putting out Presteigne, but again the highlight of the round was provided by little Nisca United, who collected another Abacus Welsh League scalp with their win at Ferndale. It is certainly unusual for a Gwent County League club to make it into the hat for the 3rd Round draw with the League sides.

Surprising draws were obtained by Cressford (at Newtown) and Caldicot Town (at Abergavenny) but both lost home replays. I visited Caldicot's Jubilee Way ground for the replay and was impressed by this ambitious club, only in their third year in the Abacus Welsh League. Their priority is apparently provision of covered accommodation and this would certainly enhance this otherwise excellent (if slightly cramped) ground. Credit must be given for another very good programme and the use of a public address system - both areas which many South Wales clubs largely ignore.

Highlights of the 3rd round draw include Merthyr v. Swansea, Tonyrefail v. Worcester, Llex II v. Wrexham and Shrewsbury v. Caernarfon. Nisca miss out on the real moneyspinning possibilities and must visit Abergavenny. I'll be reporting on these ties in two months' time, but next month I will focus on some of the clubs making the league headlines in Wales.

THE EASTERN SCENE

— with PADDY LILLISTONE —

A news round-up from East Anglia and the surrounding areas

One of the Jewson Eastern League Division One sides to join this summer was the former Ipswich Sunday side Loadwell Transport, but their new venture nearly came to a quick end. When plans to build a purpose-built stadium on the outskirts of the town fell through, they arranged to use a sports centre pitch instead, but league officials turned this down as the pitch was full of stones. Faced with this eve-of-season dilemma, Loadwell managed to persuade the sports centre to lease a pitch elsewhere on their complex and they expect to have used the new pitch from the start of October. However, their troubles are still not over, as the new pitch encroaches on the cricket square of a very successful local side who are up in arms, and in any case there is the very real threat of a new road passing right through the complex!

Jewson League side Ely City's move to a new ground a couple of years ago has proved their salvation with floodlights bringing a surge of interest for the Fen Country town club. Increased attendances and bar takings have wiped out a £9,000 debt and the club now has a real 'buzz' about it.

—o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o—

To commemorate the demolition of Lowestoft Town's century old pavilion, the Blues invited all players who have turned out for the club since the war and even before to come along to the ground. And with Brantham Athletic opening their £18,000 floodlights in October, Felixstowe Town are the only Jewson League Premier club still without lights. They have until 1990-91 season to get them at which the league insists that all clubs must have floodlights.

On Stowmarket Town's first visit to Canvey Island for an FA Cup match, they were astounded to be given a free barbeque after the match by their hospitable hosts.

Peterborough League side Parsons Drove were upset that their application to join the Jewson League Division 1 was not accepted when Ipswich Sunday League side Loadwell were. Mind you, they did finish bottom of their league last season, with only 5 points and 162 goals conceded! The Essex & Suffolk Border League had its first lady official in action for a match in its 75 years. Mrs Pat Bailey was on the line for the Bramaton v. Sudbury Wanderers knockout cup match.

—o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o—

Clacton Town have commenced work on a new stand at their Rush Green Bowl ground. Their revamped match programme is one of the best around the Eastern area this season and well worth a look. Copies are available at 25p + SAE from Kevin Crane, 2 Purley Way, Clacton-on-Sea, Essex, CO16 8YX.

THE OUTER HEBRIDES

Come and see the beautiful Hebrides, said the advert. And that's exactly what I did.

If you only attend a match where there is a programme, or a badge, then forget it. If you want to watch football in a different environment, then the summer football league on Harris and Lewis is well worth a look.

There are eleven teams in the league, and they play Fridays (7pm) and Mondays (7pm.) It is advisable to obtain a fixture list before you go, but the Stornaway Gazette, or West Highland Free Press, both give excellent coverage. I also have the phone number and adress of the secretary should anyone want them.

Getting there can be a problem, and it will be expensive. You can go by air direct into Stornaway, but if you have your own transport, it involves two boat trips. A short five minute hop to Skye is followed by a 50 mile trip up to Uig in the north, from where you can get the (daily) ferry to Tarbert, this crossing taking two hours. This will set you back about £90. The other alternative is to go from Ullapool to Stornaway, a 4 hour crossing, which is hideously expensive.

If you do not have your own transport, then you must stay in Stornaway, as public transport in the island is useless for football purposes, and most of the teams are based around Stornaway. There is only one team on Harris, and that is Harris FC, and to get to this ground you really need your own transport. It is 45 miles away from Stornaway, and the road is single track with passing places and thousands of sheep.

There is plenty of bed and breakfast accommodation available, at about £9 per night. You are strongly advised to book an evening meal for Sunday, as absolutely nothing will be open. I stayed at an excellent guest house in Tarbert, but this is of no use to anyone without transport of their own. Do not, under any circumstances, stay at the youth hostel. It may well be cheaper, but it is three miles from the nearest road, and can only be reached by boat, or by foot along a very spectacular and narrow footpath. It cannot be reached by car. If you stray off the path, you could well be lost forever in an unprogrammed peat bog.

Come prepared for bad weather. There are only 14 rain free days (on average), and the summer temperature averages 55 f. I arrived on Harris in driving rain, which continued in various intensity throughout my stay. Fortunately I went by car, and not by motorbike. I went for a quick drive around Harris, and found myself in a soaking wet, lunar landscape, populated only by sheep, with just a house here and there. The roads were single track, and petrol stations were rarely to be found. Trying to find somewhere for a cup of tea proved virtually impossible, and it is very easy to become depressed within minutes of leaving the boat. Persevere, and you will find a totally new environment, and one which is thoroughly enjoyable.

I was fortunate, in as much as Mr. and Mrs. McPherson, who owned the guest house, were both football enthusiasts, and their son played for Harris FC. I very quickly found out where all the grounds were, and had the opportunity to take in three matches, which had all been rearranged following prolonged bad weather. The first of these was at Harris, who were at home to Rovers in their final match of the season. It was a 7pm kick off, and as

HOW TO GET THERE

The nearest railway station to Abingdon is Radley, only two miles away and within easy walking distance. Oxford and Didcot are both six miles away. Abingdon is well served by buses from Oxford, and it also has its own mini-bus service around the town. Any bus to the town centre will leave a pleasant 10 minute walk across the Thames to the ground.

THE GROUND & FACILITIES

A large development programme has been carried out at Culham Road to ensure that the ground will be up to Football-Ligues standard should Town gain promotion at the end of the current season. Floodlights were switched on last season, a hard pathway now goes all round the pitch, the present car park doubled in size, and a new stand is in the pipeline. The ground does already have covered accommodation along one side of the pitch, with a social club complex on the other side. The completely refurbished football. Some of the best in non-league football. A new club shop has been opened for 1988-89 season, and carries a wide range of non-league programmes. There are excellent catering facilities at the ground, with hot food being served throughout the match.

WHERE TO EAT & DRINK

There are plenty of eating and drinking establishments in Abingdon. In fact there are so many pubs that it could not possibly list them here. There are some pubs at least within 1 mile of the town centre. The eating places in Abingdon range from casual to formal, Indian and Bangor bars, all in the town centre area. To go into the 'bars' in more depth, Abingdon has its own barbers, 'Roadside' and there are plenty of their pubs in the town. There's also Kaffi, Biscuits, Cava, Scottish & Newcastle and Kidsworth Bars available.

PROGRAMME DETAILS

This season's 24-page programme is included with admission, and has a striking yellow and green card cover. Town's Oxford City programme editor Andy Gadden is in charge, and is a good effort. The team line-ups are on page 1, there is a general column, chairman's notes, club history, facts and figures, feature on the opposition, secretary's notes, a useful map of all the Spartan League clubs for the 1988-89 season, press cuttings and a League newsletter all crammed into its 24 pages. And with only five pages of advertising, it is particularly interesting.

Thames Valley Round-Up

News and views from the Oxfordshire, Bucks, Berks and surrounding areas
With Andy Molden

Since my last notes I have managed to visit three new grounds and re-visit a few. The first new one was Watlington Abbey, which was the first Abingdon match where progress was not issued. Also all the beer taps were serving lager! But we had plus side the beer pulling was about to be excellent. On my visit most of the clubs' officials had gone on a week's holiday to Spain.

My second new ground was Wellington in the Western League. Wellington play on a public park along with the local rugby and cricket club. The ground has a club-house and covered terracing down one side with the rest of the ground being open. There is plenty of parking around the ground, which is only 200 yards from the town centre. My visit was for a mid-week match versus Icknham, which ended 2-1. An excellent programme was issued, which was included with the admission price.

The third of the trio was Niagara Town, which appears to be disappearing under a building programme, with office blocks and flats encroaching onto the edge of the ground.

For you programme collectors I can confirm that the following are issuing in the Spartan League. They are Abingdon Town, Amersham Town, Caspenny, Corinthian Casuals, Watlington Farmery, Town & Manor, Southwick Borough, Brighthelm, Somers Northwood and Beaconsfield United.

Two grounds quite new for us have both got new stands erected since my last visit. The first is Flosswell Heath, who have a new one way aspect stand on the opposite side to the dressing room, and also the clubhouse has been refurbished with a new bar lounge having been created. Flosswell is a ground where you can park your car inside the ground itself, just behind the goal.

The second ground with a new stand is Beccles United. In fact, this one is in the process of being completed, again on the opposite side to the current stand and creating some trouble. Beccles incidentally have an excellent bar (which has been awarded to Steve Pottall). Also, back copies of programmes can usually be acquired from the gatekeepers for a very reasonable price.

There have been some stories of Oxford City. The floodlight pylons have now been taken down. The college said they were dangerous. City, with the committee in place, recently tried to get a pitch at a disused school but this fell through. The present situation is that the committee have no assets, and there are still the hands of the vice-chairman who has been satisfied by the new committee. He claims that because he had to fight most of the visiting as well. My bet is that they won't be back next year, and if it were to be a legal fight, the old vice-chairman still has claims on the old title. What most people on the new committee forget is the original vice-chairman saved the club in 1986, and was the only one of the old committee to put his hand in his pocket!

My other Abingdon Town are now selling 15,000 a month as our best sales. Also they have now been given permission for a stand to be erected, and this should start to appear in the next month or so.

My good friend Steve Hardy has bought our six 1 - 1 of non-league programmes, an excellent in-depth look at last seasons issues. A copy can be obtained from Steve at 21-27 (including 14p) from 7 Stage Elms, East Hagbourne, Didcot, Oxon, MK11 9AB.

Next month I will bring you an up-to-date look at the Oxon Senior League plus other local leagues, including some Directory information.

LEO'S LINES

A review of the interesting non-league stories during the past month . . . by
LEO HOENIG

A busy start to the month, with FA Cup fixtures in the first week, plus the first round of the FifeC Cup (which by the way is this article). Like the good ones I do, this is intended to underpin it's new commercial name of the Football Cup, but overlaps with the FA Cup, where the best cupper result was supplied by Warrington Town (Ches. WFL), making 1981-82 (SPL 2) as 2-0. The West Country showdown between Salish United and Falmouth went in the Great Mills Western League side famous for an explosive 1-0 margin, while one up of the week saw all the papers, and even the FA report a victory for Falmouth (by 4-1) at Kingsdown. In fact all Falmouth's goals were illegitimate, and Kings won by 2-0. The FifeC, meanwhile had more than enough 'sordid' results, with Raiglen City pulling four past Altrincham, Bishop's Stortford winning by one odd goal in seven at Arfain and Larnkington, Tiford defeating Welling United. I would choose two of the first week's matches as worthy of extra note. In the Thursday, struggling Southampton (Championship) drew travelling ex-Worcester SPL side Dorchester, and came back with a 2-0 win, and the following day, and not far away, the action boiled over into large trouble for West Playing Musgrave County, and Yeovil had some serious sent off after only 11 minutes - despite this they were 2-0 up at the break, and three minutes later the sinners were none even when Wynne Williams suffered a second booking. Yeovil were made a penalty before Paul Randall got them 2-1 up, and despite Chris P. pulling one back, seven minutes from time, Yeovil were making it 2-2 when Peter Jones was dismissed (again second booking) eight minutes from time, and Dave Anderson and Paul Henderson took the swing into extra-time. A minute into the extra-time Randall scored to restore Yeovil's lead, but they were short-lived as Henderson levelled the scores again. There were now just two minutes left to go, as Steve Walter (Yeovil) and Jamie King (Dorchester) were sent to the changing early bath, while Chris Backs was left on the pitch to score a winner for Newport.

Over Saturday 20th, and the weekend ended at the FA Cup, and for as the game through the rounds for surprises - were Doncaster FC (York WFL) beating Lancaster City (NPL 1) by 2-0 count, see I think so, but what is the position when Farnham United (North All) beat Pickering Town (NCE 2) by 1-0 (no surprise I think), and what about York WFL v Shal Northern, can I honestly call Ashfield Plain's 2-0 win at West Auckland a shock (perhaps not, but a fine result either way). Still I will happily record a few others for the day well, with Leamington going down 2-0 at Poulton Vale (W Ches), and Denny Hill suffering a 2-1 home loss to General Chemicals (W Ches). Eastwards, the CMJ scored some notable victories over NCE sides, with Staveley beating Long Eaton United (NCE 2), Nelson winning at Grimsby (NCE 1) and Louth easily getting the better of Sheffield (NCE 1), but this was countered at Eccleshill (NCE 1) who won 2-0 at home, and Loughborough Town (NCE 1) defeated Duxton 1-0 in a replay. Well CMJ sides from the 'Downs' division, best results from the region saw Staveley United win by 2-0 at Ashbourne Welfare (NCE 2) and Welling WFL (NCE 2) win a 1-0 victory over Duxton Town (NPL 1), in the Midlands, Yeovil Burgess (WFL) go the better by 2-1 in a replay of Mile Oak (EHL-M), while Spalding United (EHL-M) fell at home to Solihull (Mid West), also 2-1, and Doncaster (NPL) defeated Ashford Highfield (EHL-M) by 2-1, after extra time. No real surprises in the last, but plenty of excitement, mainly, for the supporters of Exeter City and Ely City (both second division FL) that started in goals at Exeter, before Ely won by 2-1 at home. No further surprises for North County League sides with Wingate going down 2-0 at Maidstone (VOL-2a), and London Colner losing at home to Dulwich Town (EHL-2), but where for 3 Midlands League clubs, notably the 61, for a 2-1 win at Northchurch (VOL-2a), and Milton Keynes Borough, 1-0 victors over Clapton (VOL-2a), while for the Great King Sports League, Northwood and Beccles won 2-0 with (respectively) over Colchester OC and Salish Town (both VOL-2a), further south, Loughborough Town (EHL) defeated Stone Town (VOL 2a) in a replay, while another County side, Burgess Hill scored the goal required to knock out Doncaster City (EHL-2). Old Salisham went down in a replay to Warrington & Woodford (EHL-2) but the APA are still represented by West Wiltshire who defeated Wiltshire Town (EHL-2) by 2-0. As for the club progress for Quorn side Vale Recreation, who lost 2-4 at Clonfield (Mid WFL-2a) by ending the season as in the West, where a couple of Northamptonshire County sides, North Hill, and Loughborough Western Salish in an extra replay, and the winner of Great Mills Western Championship, notably Clonfield and Beccles Town and Salmons of St Michael's line start in the Midlands Combination. (Incidentally without dropping a point, or even conceding a goal), taking over at Halesowen Town while assistant manager promote Kirk Stephens fills caretaker. Bolsover meanwhile appointed Alan Pearson, former assistant to Dave Morris as their manager. Pearson's is a former manager of another of his local clubs, Sutton Coldfield. Meanwhile the Midlands committee found for managers' move on with Halesowen Town struggling and without a victory in the BNL, seeking Ben Barrett, and immediately appointing Peter Page, who had spent last part of three weeks out of the game since leaving Halesowen in the previous month. Further south, a team still to appoint a manager in Barnstaple, but there has been such a reluctance to their results since the Howell changed his title from caretaker manager to chairman. Following Dave Wood's departure, that he may be a candidate for the VOL's manager of the south ward, Howell has stated he does not want the job permanently.

The FA Cup third qualifying rounds brought defeat to two members of the GWV. Conference on their own ground, with Bayern taking at least of a 2-0 win, while goal by Nicky Cross, the Green Athletic striker. However, this was nothing to the drama as Queens United continued to lose at home to Hinkley Town at the Leake's Hall Midlands League. Chris Cook and Paul Wilson had set Bayern on their way to what they thought would be another big score, but then Hinkley scored a penalty, converted by John Lane, and three minutes later Andy Murray put the tie level. Bayern regained the lead just before half time, but they were shock hit by the host. Murray continued his net-work and gave Hinkley lead through. This could indeed be the most difficult tie for the GWV, as for the other side, clubs from the Premier League were involved in fixtures. Also involved in their fixtures, North at home, but winning at home 2-0, and both Bradford City and Wigan Athletic were held 1-1 at home, as Leicester United (VOL-F) and Kingstonian (VOL-F) respectively. Both GWV clubs put through in their fixtures. Plymouth, the club who should through most of the Southern's fixtures, and even Luton Town's fine win at Luton Wigan was not entirely successful, but there were several interesting replays. I use the word 'interesting' deliberately, as only one was really, Whitehawk (Sussex) winning 1-0 against Reading & Town (VOL-F) couple of a shock. Meanwhile many other (VOL-F) played six at Tewkesbury (VOL-M), while conceding four, while Exeter (VOL-F) and Cheltenham (VOL-F) had a narrow 2-1 draw. I saw Exeter (VOL-F) edged out at Reading Town (VOL-F) by a goal in the closing seconds of extra time. Now on the South Coast, Brighton City was at Barnstaple as an all time high, while Barnstaple saw the all time high with Exeter's league battle, with a victory over Torquay, which shows here is a rare victory for Devon over Cornwall.

The FA Trophy came back to the fore on the 22nd of the month, and not without incident, with three results showing the power in the lower divisions of the BNL. Grantham played Premier Division Alvechurch, and after a 1-1 draw at home, won the away match by 1-0, while another Midland division club, Atherstone had a similar 1-1 victory over Nuneaton. To reach the Southern Division in the final, Graysend & Northfleet, who I see in their second replay victory over Margate (VOL-F) in the previous round, now won by 1-0 at Barking (again VOL-F), while on a similar theme, Rushmore Town (VOL-F) won at home to Wivenhoe Town (VOL-F). But what was the second round of the FA Cup, now official named after it's sponsors from Clubcell. The second round was held up in part not just by FA Trophy replays, but also by continuing first round ties, as a result of which, only nine of the scheduled 16 ties got played. If the competition is to continue, it had to better through fixtures in future, which I think may have been in the early part of the season. Meanwhile one of the of the season should be worth of note, and would certainly get more attention and then narrowed to other national competitions. Chester and Wrexham drew 2-2 in a replayed first round tie, with the WFL side going through, on account of away goals, as the first match had been 0-0, while the most notable season round result saw the final winners of the competition in it's present form, Boreham Town go down 1-0 at Leytonstone / Ilford (VOL-F).

Incidentally, backtracking a little, on the 11th, I saw Taiford defeat St Helens Town 3-0 in a FA Cup match (Barn FWC League Cup 1st). At this match I met a member of the League's management committee, and took some with me to discuss about that league in last month's issue. But look at this official's record. He did not arrive at the ground until nearly half-time, and then spent more of his time looking at various magazines I was carrying than the match, and when I tried to discuss the state of play, he was patently uninterested, especially as I was trying to compliment the team's defence, which means that Taiford are no longer the whipping boys of the WFL. I also made the mistake of commenting on the fine Taiford ground, situated in a pleasant residential area just off the City Road, north of Manchester. It is entirely enclosed, and has plenty of ground, adequate parking, and space to expand if and when they want to, there is a fairly old concrete and plaster stand, that looks a little old-time, but without the art, and has recently had some effort spent on repainting the roof

MY 10 FAVOURITE GROUNDS VISITED IN NON-LEAGUE FOOTBALL

This month: IAN McNABB of DAGENHAM, Essex.

Here goes "10 favourite Non-League Grounds" selected coming in. Just would be as if the usual magazine address. This month it is the turn of Ian McNabb of Dagenham, Essex, who tells us about his choice, and why he selected them.

1. BECCLES : A real delight, and quite the most picturesque ground I have ever seen. Access to the ground can be gained directly from the old train station, which lies alongside and is on the Ipswich to Lowestoft line. Pass over the iron footbridge and through a gap in the hedge on the right and you are in Village Meadow. A lengthy stand runs along one side neatly painted in club colours of black and white, with "Beccles F.C." on top. There are numerous buildings, including old houses some which give the ground a real village look. Regular glossy programme issuers too.

2. CHICHESTER TOWN : Another really old fashioned ground which seems to have changed very little since their days in the Southern Counties League before the war. A large wooden grandstand occupies the front along one side, with the sides also painted largely in the club colours. The friendly welcome and regular programme from this sleepy part of Dorset have secured us return on several occasions.

3. ADWINGTON SPANLEY : Included for purely nostalgic reasons. It's wonderful to see fans putting this old name back on the map. Everyone at Dagenham takes great pride in their side and each time I've visited the Green Ground they seem to be making further improvements. The "Foot Park" pub opposite the old Spanley ground can be recommended for a friendly drink.

4. BRAINTREE TOWN : Quite the friendliest ground I have ever visited, and the locals really seem to love their football in Braintree. There are remains of the old British Athletic grandstand on one side, cover for 1000 supporters, and further over behind the goal where the partisans have support seats as much as any other non-league club I've seen - and certainly more than their neighbours Chelmsford City. Braintree's exploits in the programme fields are legendary and they too have an excellent club shop too, with a wider variety of programmes on display than most others. Floodlit matches are particularly recommended.

5. CHINGFORD : Sadly this club folded up during the winter. Although the floodlit sides were spared to say the least, with a very small terraced shelter behind the goal and nothing but uneven grass banking on either side. I always got the impression that the ground had seen far better days. Once Southern League Chingford Town played here and they had planned to build a large grandstand before going bust. Also very picturesque, with a unique entrance.

6. PORTLAND UNITED : A quite astonishing ground for a Dorset Combination side, which would grace the Great Mills League. Spacious wooden grandstand on one side, with a neat clubhouse alongside, covered terracing behind one goal and a sturdy concrete super on the far end. The ground is enclosed by a wall made from Portland stone, and also boasts a flagpole, as well as attractive programme.

7. ST. MARKS TOWN : This is a fine old fashioned Southern Counties League style ground. There is covered terracing all the way along one side, interrupted by the clubhouse and changing house in the middle. The upper part of this stand is a seated grandstand, until it was bricked up to form a bar. From the side you can see where this was done, and the roof still slopes like a stair. On the far side there is a 400-seater old wooden stand, in need of a little attention.

8. WEST END UNITED : Sadly this Colchester based club are no longer with us, merging with Woodhouse Athletic of the Essex & Suffolk Border League some years ago to become Woodhouse West End. They used to play on the Carriage Ground, particularly interesting for having two full sides of smart concrete terracing with the upper side being at ground level and the pitch itself in a hollow. Very nice.

9. DULWICH HAMLET : Almost one of the last of the "old" London grounds, which remains untouched. You can stand on the huge timber terraced at either end and imagine Dulwich playing in exactly the same conditions 10 years earlier. I'm sure that this club aren't in the Conference.

10. SPRINGFIELD LUTHERAN : A surprise to see an old time supporter, I suspect, that this club are still going. They now play in the reserve section of the First League. The terracing behind one goal and cover have now been demolished, and most of the terracing that runs the length of the clubhouse side is now uncovered. Still, the club struggle on, however. Says to this week ground club always remind me of their glory years in the 50's and 60's.

SPOT the GROUND

— COMPETITION —

can be won

Last month's competition was reasonably well received, with most getting the answer correct, so the £1 is again up (it has gone every time so far). The correct answer was, of course, GLOUCESTER CITY, with the false clue being No. 2 as they have never reached the final of the FA Trophy at Wembley.

And the lucky winner this month is:- DAVID GORTON, 15 OAK CRESCENT, CIVILIAN, KENT MIDLANDS, ME9 1RL. Well done David, your £1 prize will be on its way to you in the next few days.

Incidentally, we have received quite a number of entries on postcards but the sender has forgotten to include name and address. Please remember to include these details with your entries. Incidentally, thank you to the reader who kindly pointed out that last month we gave the answer as Wokingham Town when it should have been just Wokingham, as Town are a Rugby League club. It's nice to know people are reading our competition page!

In case there are people who still do not know the rules of the competition, it is extremely easy to enter. Just study the ten photos below of a non-league ground, and the six clues that go with them. Using your judgement and general knowledge of non-league football, work out which ground is featured. But please remember one of the six clues is a red herring and has been thrown in to trick you. Please make sure your entry reaches us no later than Friday 15th November. Send your entry to:- SPOT THE GROUND COMPETITION, Gate No. 6, GROUNDHOPPER DAY, 221NE, 439 AERON ROAD, WANDSWORTH, LONDON, SW18 5LB.

All correct entries will be placed in a hat and a winner drawn by the editor on Saturday 24th November. Answer and winner (if any) announced in the January 1989 issue. There will be a brand new "Spot the Ground" competition next month.

And as a bonus, next month's special illustrated MATCH will also contain a quiz and competition where you have the chance to win the magnificent new book due to be published shortly entitled "Ten-League Grounds of Great Britain" which could be worth over £100. See next month's magazine for more details.

Here are your 11 clues as to which club is featured in the photo. But remember - one of these clues is not true. Good luck!

- 1). This north-west club are 24 miles from London.
- 2). They play at ----- Road, which is just a 1 minute walk from the club.
- 3). Club colours are blue and white for first-team matches.
- 4). The club have reached this season's 1st Qualifying Round of the FA Cup for the first time in their history.
- 5). They were losing I.A.Vier semi-finals in the mid-1940's.
- 6). This club has one of the best club shops in non-league football.

Worked it out yet? If so, make sure these entries reach us by 15th November at the latest. If you prefer, you can write your answer on the back of a sealed envelope or postcard and post it in to us, but include your name and address.

TARTAN

with Raymond Jarvie

TRAVELS

Due to holidays and Sports matches, I hadn't visited a new ground in Scotland since my trip to Forres at the start of the season. So on the last Saturday in September I set about putting that right. A friend told me that Ardrossan Winton Rovers were worth a visit. Luckily they were at home that day and, even better, they were hosting their first programme of the season. The drive to Ardrossan, which is situated on the coast about 20 miles north of Ayr, took longer as I was as I thought, and after a couple of strong headwinds arrived at Winton Park about two to three. The ground was indeed impressive with a 500 seater stand towering over the pitch. Inside and out there is covered parking with grass banking on the other two sides. Mr. Morrison, their extremely helpful secretary, met us on arrival and showed us to the club and then, after the war, the committee turned the pitch round 90° and gradually built up the ground. He also invited us back to the pavilion for after match refreshment which we gratefully accepted. He showed us some of the ladies carrying the team and "these days are visiting all the non-league grounds in Scotland and his own two ladies" my husband visiting Ardrossan should see for Mr. Morrison, who will be delighted to meet you. The match itself - v. Dunfermline, Scottish League Division 1 - was quite entertaining. A scrappy first period was followed by four second half goals, with the visitors scrapping a draw with a last minute penalty.

Finding a programme bearing club in Pife is about as rare as an English goal (watch it, Mr. Jarvie! - Ed), so when news filtered through of an issue at Ladies Welfare, I decided to make the short trip over the River Forth. The club actually play in the village of Crosshill about 1/2 mile from Leith, which itself is about 10 miles NE of Goudenbeath. I met programme editor Jim Barnes at the gate. The club's secretary was decided to distribute a programme because he felt, quite correctly, that all clubs should make an effort to issue something. Unfortunately this has not caught on with the locals. I arrived before most of the crowd - which was a disappointing 60, considering the distance was (roughly) 10 miles - and saw some (mostly) empty seats. I was in for a programme. It was probably only sold about 20. However this was a great deal better than a recent match against Thurston, when the attendance was just 10. Goudenbeath has a number of interesting, just grassy fields.

the way round. The pit is bumpy and uneven, and from the pavilion end it is impossible to see the hall at the far end because of the dip. To the right is in the middle of the now defunct Central Fife coalfield and there are many valleys around to remind you of this.

to remind you of them. I cannot finish this month's travels without mentioning my trip to Leam and Ather. From time to time I make the odd trip to the North East and the pairing of Leam and Athering Stanley in the FA Cup caught my eye. I travelled to Leam by train, changing at Newcastle, and walked the mile or so up the hill to the Town Park. After buying my programme I popped into the local pub where I met a group of Athering fans including the redoubtable Mrs Ruth Chadwick who runs the club shop at Green Meadow. After some friendly persuasion I purchased a badge and some programmes and joined the Stanley fans to watch the game. It finished in a forgettable 2-2 draw but I enjoyed the company of the Athering crowd. After the match we were all invited back to another pub, who were the main sponsors for a buffet. I was given a strange North East delicacy, a bowl of soup with a large doughball or dumpling in the middle of it. It tasted OK though. My day was completed with the offer of a lift back to the station from the Leam Chairman, who had heard of groundhoppers but had not actually met any up till then. Another club a bit off the beaten track but well worth the journey.

Back next month with news of a hopping trip to Holland.

Although as the weather was off, I did not get in some things. Still it is anticipated that at least one member of the management committee would like to see you also removed from the top division, as they only have one area of control. This same person told me that the league did not exist either, but that they ruled themselves out - by saying that at Whitworth Valley?

As final piece of news for this story, concerns Haringey through FC - as you may well be aware, they were finally expelled from the Vauxhall (now) League towards the end of October. The reasons given were that the club had not yet registered any players, or played any matches this season. The news was not a surprise, but still the press release stated a little in as much. After all, Haringey have been suspended, and therefore incapable of playing any matches, and while this was the case, were they really expected to start signing up players - as to what extent did the Vauxhall-spl League contribute to the demise of one of their two clubs?

CLUB SHOP

REVIEW THIS MONTH:

BLYTH SP.

NO.

Blyth Spartans club shop, along with the snack bar, is run by the Supporters Club. Now in its 11st year, the Supporters Club started from very humble beginnings with the original shop and by using a small wooden hut. This was then superseded in 1975 by a purpose-built brick building which combined a snack bar and club shop etc. After numerous improvements to kitchen equipment and ground public address system (which is operated from the club shop) it is now considered one of the best set-ups in Northern non-league football.

Many visiting supporters calling at Croft Park comment on the football memorabilia on the shop wall, and although not for sale, they probably represent one of the best collections in the local area. This collection is mainly the work of vice-chairman Tommy Twiley who travels the world with his job and always manages to bring back some new mementos.

The souvenirs on sale vary from club badges, hats, scarves etc, but perhaps the best sellers are the Spartans official creators which are bottle glass with the club motif. These are sold throughout the world, such is the club fame due to past cup exploits. The souvenirs can be seen and inspected from a covered area outside the club shop, but access is also available inside the shop for football programmes. There are two lounges, where a good exchange service is encouraged with other clubs. The surplus Spartans programmes are arranged on shelves with the others in boxes. The Supporters Club also print the programme in addition to running the shop and snack bar. In addition, they run two coaches to some away games, but normally just the one coach, with a return fare of just 12 to most games.

The club shop doesn't actually have a shop manager as such, but Club Secretary Leslie Clark has done excellent work for the club and shop over the years. He is usually found running the shop on matchdays, as allowing the other committed members to sell programmes around the ground and social club.

Anyone visiting Croft Park for the first time should have no problem in finding the club shop. It is in an open area to the left hand side of the main stand facing the pitch.

NON-LEAGUE BOOKSHELF

Each month we review books, magazines, handbooks, or any publication with a non-league connection. If you would like your publication reviewed on this page please write to: Groundhopper Magazine, 439 Merton Road, Wandsworth, London SW18 5LE enclosing a copy.

The Bolton United Supporters' Club magazine TOUCHLINER is one of the oldest publications of the kind in non-league football, and is again being produced this season. The first issue for 1988-89 is priced at 10p for 16 pages + cover, with quite a good yellow card cover showing a drawing of the stand at Gander Green Lane printed in brown. This season, the large and windy A4 size magazine has been replaced by a sensible A5 size (i.e. GNM size) which certainly gives the whole booklet a neater look. There are some interesting articles in the issue we reviewed, including "From the Terrace" by Dave Pross, Editor's column, an entertaining report on the annual cricket match between Bolton United players and supporters which was held in July, Julie Tunney, the reporter on the Bolton Free-press newspaper talks to player Ian Rundle in a special interview for the magazine and then comes "Supporters' Forum" where Chris Ball tries to explain where the club has gone since last season's significant FA Cup run. There is an interesting diary column from Nigel Ingham who talks, amongst other things, about the club's trip to Jersey, printers errors and the sexuality of the match secretary! Next up is "Life as a Football Widow" with players' wives talking about the problems of being married to footballers, followed by a Youth Team report and a look back at programmes from previous years. Finally comes "The Man in Black", the average soccer tribsman's guide to referees. Overall, the articles were well written and very quite amusing. The Editors obviously go to a lot of trouble to track down a number of contributors, all of which help to make this one of the more interesting of non-league club magazines.

STIRLING ALBION F.C. - 1943-1988 contains 92 pages, softbound, illustrated throughout, and is compiled and written by Allan Grievie and John Turnbull. It has a complete record of Stirling Albion FC since their formation in 1943, and contains details of every match, competitive and friendly played by the club. It also contains information about every player ever signed by the club. There is a foreword by Aberdeen manager Alex Smith, and the 92 pages are crammed with statistical data, photographs and information. The cover has a striking red, white and black design and particularly interesting are old press cuttings and photographs from the earlier years in the club's history. The compilers are to be congratulated in putting in so much time and effort in producing a fine club history in paperback form. It is typed throughout. The compilers are both supporters of Stirling Albion F.C. and recall the club as "Aberdeen's B-side". Allan Grievie is a school teacher, and John Turnbull is a student. Copies are 17, plus 2p for postage and packaging (over) - Elliot Beale, 31 Queen Street, Stirling, FK8 1HL.

Dear GROUNDHOPPER MAGAZINE,

I think that clubs should not have to have floodlights before entering the F.A. Cup. If these sort of restrictions were brought in I wonder how long it would be before someone wanted to ban clubs who couldn't be allowed to stage a match against Football League clubs for safety reasons? One way to avoid witness being taken off would be to do that discom and for an FA trophy replay with Wokingham two seasons ago. They played the next day (Monday).

JOHN BRADDOCK, 15 BAYDOCK AVENUE, LILLAND, NINTON, WILT, W9, WANDSWORTH.

Dear GROUNDHOPPER MAGAZINE,

I do not feel that floodlights should be a prerequisite for entry into the F.A. Cup. I can see that floodlights are relevant as a criteria for membership of leagues at a certain level of football, because league programmes may require a certain number of stadium facilities. To bar clubs from the cup, because of the possibility of any replay having to kick off early, would be contrary to the spirit of the cup. Any club which has taken a game should be allowed to enter the national premier knockout competition.

DAVID COLLIER, 47 RICHMOND ROAD, GUILDFORD, SURREY, GU1 2AA, WALES.

Dear GROUNDHOPPER MAGAZINE,

Two seasons I have joined the members of Colwyn Bay FC who play in Division One of the North West Counties League.

We haven't got floodlights but believe me, it is not for the want of trying. We have a floodlight run at approximately one day in the week, two distant floodlights will be able to have lights installed. As for the stadium at Woking FC - well, as far as I am concerned, his attitude means of arranging that the stadium was as well as without. Clubs should be allowed in the FA Cup with or without lights. While it's a disadvantage, but all aspects of the FA Cup should be included clubs without floodlights.

If lacking your had to come to Colwyn Bay for a cup replay, we'd give them a warm welcome, especially Mr. Walters even if the kick off was at 3.0pm.

FRANK CORRE, 15 FRANK THORP, COLWYN BAY, CLWYD, LL28 5TY.

Dear GROUNDHOPPER MAGAZINE,

First of all (before the evening), congratulations to the magazine. I think you merge with the Groundhopper which will be of benefit to all groundhoppers.

Now for the evening. I recently purchased issues 9 and 10 of GNM. In issue 9 we have King's comment I was surprised at his statement on violence in football. While he is very far from a fool and in some of his statements I agree with what he said. I was though surprised at his reference to a riot after the game between Chelsea and Middlesbrough. A report of the incident in the national newspaper of the 29th said, "After the final whistle about 30 Middlesbrough fans got on the pitch and began celebrating. Meanwhile at the other end of the field, Chelsea fans began moving into the pitch through the gates in the feeling which was open there was only a small police presence inside the ground and they appeared free to run to the other end. Arriving there, some threw missiles at the opposing fans. After a while about six policemen began to shepherd the Chelsea fans back to the other end. There was no actual fighting on the pitch as the Middlesbrough fans were back behind the fence before the Chelsea fans had arrived".

I am pointing this out to show there was a riot. Otherwise his statement would not be able to control them.

BILLY WHEATCROFT, 25 FENLEY, GLOUCESTER ROAD, TOTTERHAM, LONDON, N17 6LS.

Dear GROUNDHOPPER MAGAZINE,

I am writing in response to Robert Roberts's article in October's GNM concerning the possible trip to Europe with fellow groundhoppers.

I fully support the idea and believe it might help change the European's stereotyped image of the English football fan.

I could call myself a "continental groundhopper" as I spend a lot of time visiting foreign grounds. I still watch a lot of English football as it would work out very expensive if I were to travel across every week. I always thought there was nothing to beat English football. However in recent years my views have changed and I now feel that a lot of European football is much more skillful and entertaining.

Perhaps a continental branch of the Groundhoppers' Club could be formed, and weekends on the continent arranged. I'm sure those that have not previously visited continental stadia would soon realise that this is a very interesting aspect of groundhopping.

WICK BRADLEY, KERRISLE LODGE, BULLWOOD LANE, WICHAM, HOCKINGHAM, KENT.

Dear GROUNDHOPPER MAGAZINE,

I feel that my son and I may have established some sort of a record. Together we attended matches on two consecutive evenings, which were both abandoned due to floodlight failure. On Tuesday 10th October, we went along to Vauxhall where my son was likewise in the F.O.L. Division 1 match v. Metropolitan Police. The lights went out just before kick-off and the start of the match was delayed for almost an hour. Then two minutes after half-time darkness descended for good. Then the following evening we went to see Tring Town play Clapton in the F.O.L. Division 2 North. After finishing off our fish and chip tea in the club's car park, while making jokes about the lights going out again, we entered the ground, and guess what?.....the lights went out!!!

illumination was restored. The teams and officials took the field, the referee blew his whistle to summon the captains for the coin and simultaneously the lights went out again!

The teams trooped off, and after one other unsuccessful attempt to keep the lights burning, the game eventually started 15 minutes late. It was developing into quite an exciting match, with a near miss at both ends when, after 95 minutes play... the lights went out for the last time that evening.

Before the F.O.L. decide to ban us from their future matches, I would like to point out that neither of us have ever had such an experience even once before, during many years of involvement with football.

BADGERS SET

JACKSON

Welcome back to BADGERS SET where this month I shall complete my review of badges on offer in the Vauxhall-Opel League with a look at the selection from clubs in Division Two South.

When in the position of having a Chairman who produces badges, it is no wonder that a smart enamel badge could be found at Banstead Athletic. However, since Malcolm Baker relinquished his Chairmanship at Merland Rise, nothing new has been produced although the Surrey club currently quote in the new Non-League Directory that they have a badge on offer. The last impressive enamel badge in yellow is shown. Camberley Town recently brought out a football motif enamel badge in red and white: a welcome addition, if overpriced, at Krooner Park. Chertsey Town have a fine club crest and it was a pleasure to provide them with a blue enamel badge when they approached me in April 1987 for help. Dorking have no badges in contrast at their Meadowbank Ground - how about 100 for just 99p each, gentlemen? A former Supporters Club issue is shown.

Eastbourne United had a fine black and white enamel badge on sale at The Oval, but supplies have long since expired. Egham Town have an ornate club crest that is just crying out to be turned into an enamel badge, but my approach to date has brought no reply from Tepest Road though they state that a badge is in their plans this season. Epsom & Ewell's Club Shop was interested in having a badge made when supplies of their plastic badges ran out, but I have not heard from them since. An old club badge from West Street is shown.

Feltham have contacted me a few times about having a badge made, but no progress has been made. Their last enamel issue in blue and white enamel is depicted. At Sumner Lane, Finchley state they have badges in stock which I can only take to be the blue and white badge shown, though none were available when I last wrote. Neither Flackwell Heath nor Herefield United have a badge currently.

Although not now competing now in this League, I have shown Haringey Borough's last issue so they are not forgotten entirely. Ian Hands has got things moving on the programme and badge side at Horsham where my production for the Queen Street club is on sale. Hungerford Town's last issue is shown, a Supporters Club production which I believe is no longer in stock. Maidenhead United dabbled with some plastic insert badges a few seasons ago, but have had no proper badge for some time now. A former issue is shown featuring the Magpie of their nickname. Hot off the press is a new badge at Walton Road, a stark contrast to Molesley's last compact badge. This new one is quite sizeable and depicts the club crest in good detail.

Contemporary badge for Newbury Town which is depicted. The club crest is featured against a yellow outer background. No badge are to be found at Love Lane for Petersfield United, nor at Buislip Manor's Grosvenor Vale ground. Southall are advertising a £1 badge in the new Non-League Directory, although I have lost count of the number of unanswered letters I have written to them in this context. Their last issue was a plastic-insert, but a former enamel Supporters Club badge is shown. Similarly, Whyteleafe state to the Directory that they have a badge on offer, though letters rarely prompt a response. Their smart little badge, another Malcolm Baker issue, which is shown was the last of which I was aware, so hopefully they have re-stocked. We end at Yeading drawing another blank: nothing on offer at Beaconsfield Road.

Thanks once again to Mike Woolnough for the use of his Badge Directory illustrations. His Catalogue featuring 3000 League and Non-League badges is still available for £7.00 plus 70p P&P from 131 Chatteris Avenue, Romford, Essex. RM3 8JY. Mention GROUNDHOPPER when you write! My new November list of badges for sale can be obtained by sending a large SAE to 35 Tulip Court, Nursery Road, Pinner, Middlesex. HA5 2AP. See you all next month!

Glasgow Perthshire & Dalry Thistle

BY RAYMOND JARVIE

Focus on GLASGOW PERTHSHIRE (Central League)

The unusually named Glasgow Perthshire has always intrigued me as Glasgow is some 40 miles from the Scottish County! In fact, the club play at Keppoch Park, Rosslippen just to the north of Glasgow city centre. The nearest station is Springburn, 15 minutes walk away.

It seems that the club, formed in 1890, was originally for people who moved to the city from Perthshire looking for work. Now of course it is open to all. Keppoch Park is extremely basic with the only cover being in front of the goal pavilion. There is room for about 40 people. The rest of the ground is uneven grass banking. Keppoch Park is not the prettiest part of Glasgow; the ground is surrounded by a bus garage, a rough housing estate and wasteland. However, the local fans are friendly, amusing and know their junior football. Grounds are around 100 for most matches.

Programmes producing is slowly increasing in Scottish non-league football as clubs discover this is a good way of beating funds. Perthshire have, this season, jumped on the bandwagon, although there is record of them having produced a magazine in 1934! The current production is only 2 pages with limited content but at least they are making the effort.

Just across the corner from Keppoch Park is Larsson Park, the home of Ashfield F.C. This ground once sold 24,000 for a Scottish Junior Cup tie, against Clydebank, in 1952-3. There is usually a drop open for a quick look at Scotland's largest non-league ground.

Focus on DALRY THISTLE (Ayrshire League)

Dalry Thistle play at Broomhall Park in St. Margaret's Avenue, just a few minutes walk from the town centre.

Their ground is well kept and tidy, having recently been renovated by the local Marine Services Unit. The only cover is along one side and has the club's name emblazoned in large letters on the back. The rest of the ground has some steps of increasing all the way round. The base is lined with sea-swalling - much to the delight of Dalry's sea-bathers from the coast. Next to the clubhouse is the pavilion. This is for officials only, but you are permitted to have a look at their interesting display of old photographs. There is no social club, but meals are in vogue. Nearest pubs are the Youngs Arms and the Volunteer Arms, both in the main street. Dalry is 15 minutes by rail from Glasgow Central. Trains run every hour. This line (Glasgow-Anderson) is excellent for visiting other synchro clubs such as Ellerslie Lakeside, Ellerslie Rangers, Ardeer Thistle and Andersons Union Rangers. On leaving Dalry station, head towards the town and turn left down the hill at the cross, opposite the Masons Arms. At the foot of the hill turn right to find the ground. Thistle issue a regular programme. Printed on a word processor it has 28 pages for 20p. There are no team lines, but pos-pics of the home side are featured as well as a page on the visitors. The local paper, the Andersons & Dalry Herald covers Dalry and the other nearby clubs.

THE STENHOUSEMUIR TRIP (Cont'd)

.....it has to be said, but I can't imagine that by allowing this trip to get like this that Stenhousemuir are doing themselves any favours.

Everybody else at the ground was friendly enough. We spent a pleasant hour in the social club before going out to watch the match. The ground is pleasantly located, with the Ochil Hills a few miles away providing an eye-catching backdrop to the main stand. The stand is very similar in size and design to those at Brechin City and Stranraer, and opposite lies a length of covered terracing. There is also terracing (open) behind one goal, while at the far end it is simply flat grass standing to which access is not allowed.

The match itself was rather scrappy, and for a long time had all the symptoms of a 0 - 0 draw. But Brechin City moved up a gear in the second half, and in the end were well worth their 2 - 0 win. Stenhousemuir did 'score' in the dying minutes, when the ball bounced awkwardly around in the penalty area, went over the goal-line, and came out again after striking a pivot. I didn't actually see this myself, but Ray Owen was well placed at the time, and this was his account of what happened.

We stayed behind for a while afterwards to purchase various souvenirs, including an excellent 'Scottish Review' book. Then it was home, with a stop at the chippies in Gairn where the food is cheap and cheerful, but the presence of the hordes of local youth somewhat menacing.

At our final coffee stop we discussed future plans, and it was decided that we would visit St. Johnstone v Queen of the South, on March 25th, and Raith Rovers v Partick, on May 13th. Bookings have already been taken for both trips, and it now seems highly likely that we're going to be putting out the 'Glass Full' notions. However, in the next couple of months Ray Owen and I will be examining the possibility of hiring a 15 seater or even a 30 seater (if demand warrants that action), so please let me know soon if you wish to join us. These trips really are excellent, and a great way of getting in a game of football at a new ground in a relaxed and pleasant atmosphere.

MIDLANDS DIARY

I have never really been convinced about the merits of including a column like this in Groundhopper Magazine, and have long felt that reports on where one certain person has been watching his football every month can't make for interesting reading. I do try and make this column interesting, but after nearly a year even I'm beginning to think that what I write has a sameness about it. In view of that, I had a recent chat with Steve King, and we have decided that in future months my Midlands Diary will have more newsy content, with, hopefully, an occasional dip into more off-beat subjects. If you have any suggestions on the kind of subject you would like to see covered in future, please get in touch.

Anyway, to close this present format I'll tell you about a couple of trips made to F.A. Cup matches in October.

Chadderton versus Hyde United looked very tempting, and as a couple of fellow Groundhoppers based in the Midlands were also going we decided to share a car.

Situated on the outskirts of Oldham, Chadderton's ground was predictably well filled on the day. The one stand is a low-lying structure offering both seated and standing cover, while the rest of the ground is open, with flat standing on two sides and a grass bank behind one goal. The home side scored first, which certainly made the match more interesting, and they then had to withstand some tremendous pressure before eventually succumbing to a double-strike shortly before half-time. Hyde literally strolled the second half, and the three goals they added to their 2 - 1 interval lead were not a true reflection of their superiority on the day.

Two weeks later I had the chance of two matches on a Saturday, thanks to a Friday evening phone call from my groundhopping friend and fellow Rednesford Town supporter Colin Gilbert. Off we went to Morecambe on the Saturday morning, and arrived there in plenty of time to watch their local derby with Barrow. The home club had switched the kick-off to noon on Police advice, and this move looked well justified in the end, as there was some crowd trouble caused by the visiting supporters. A shame, really, as the number of DUKERT Barrow supporters there far outweighed the number of Idiots, some of whom looked to be in their thirties and should therefore know better. The match ended in a very disappointing 0 - 0 draw.

There followed a mad dash to Fleetwood Town, who were playing Leyce, and this match was everything a good cup tie should be. It finished in a 2 - 2 draw, which was a fair result on the balance of play, and included a couple of cracking goals from the home side. Tremendous stuff!

Is the time you read this unless the convention at Weston Super Mare will have 'been and gone', and will hopefully have been a success. Certainly, the number of people who expressed an interest in attending was pleasing, but my biggest headache was that we had no less than seventeen people who wanted to play in the friendly match. I don't like to disappoint anybody, and believe we should keep faith with those who have supported our conventions regularly in the past (people like Bob Davison and David Burton, for instance), so with the Weston convention just eight days away at the time these notes were written I was busy trying to work out a way of ensuring that everybody gets to play an equal number of minutes. At least it's nice to see the conventions these days proving more and more popular.

Please be patient if you want me an application form for Groundhoppers Club membership and have not yet received a reply. I am still wading through a backlog of unanswered letters, and will shortly be having a day off work to bring everything up to date.

We are still receiving new membership applications on a fairly regular basis, and I was particularly pleased to get one from Mrs Ruth Chadwick, who is, as far as I know, the first lady to join the club of her own accord. (That is, an application from a lady who is not joining in conjunction with a husband or boyfriend). Ruth is 51, and has been a loyal supporter of Abingdon Town since the age of four. She has a lovely personality and is full of life, and I think it is marvellous that she is attempting to get a club thing going at her local ground. Next week I will give you details as how to get in touch with her if you want to organise exchange deals, etc.

A considerable amount of interest has been shown in a possible convention at North Shields next spring, and I will be in touch again with their club secretary but mean to see how early we can arrange a firm date. The early indications are that we should have enough people from the Midlands alone to make the hiring of a minibus worthwhile. So please, whatever part of the country you live in, if you think you would like to attend a meeting at this ground then get in touch with me now, so that Ben and I might have a reasonable idea of the kind of support we can expect.

News of a car-sharing venture which went ahead recently, following notice in earlier editions of this column... Trevor Pike, from Dowlish, met up with Dave Bradley, from Milton Keynes, and together they went to Groundhoppers' new ground for a Saturday match. (I forget which). Dave told me afterwards that this had been worth trying, as the idea worked out well for both concerned.

Another possible venue for a convention this season is Cannock Chase F.C. (formerly known as Macclesfield Progress). My good friend Pete Lomas, a Cannock official, is very keen on the idea of having hordes of Groundhoppers descend on his club one Saturday next March, and over the next few weeks we are going to get together to try and sort out not only a date, but a convention format with a difference. Cannock Chase play in the First Division of the South's Brewery League, and issue an excellent thirty page programme for every home match. There's a fair chance that Pete and I will join forces and come up with a 50 page-plus special issue when the Groundhoppers meet... Again, please write and let me know if you'd be willing to support a convention held there.

One idea I have for future conventions (including the yet mentioned above) is for the Groundhoppers Club to sponsor the match at which a convention is held, with a view to helping the home club. This could be done in a way which should be now be familiar to us all - by raising the sponsorship money from our friendly matches and our Prize Competitions. Whether you agree or disagree, or have ideas of your own, let me know what you think.

Christopher Hastings nominates Bernard Bannister for the 'BILLY BOB OF THE YEAR 1988'. Christopher says "Bernie has been situated in a superb position, on a balcony behind the stand, and from here you have a superb view of the match. Not only that, but they make calls to order." Many thanks for your nomination, Christopher. In next month's issue we will have further nominations, including a couple from Andy Malden of Abingdon Town fame.

MY MONTH

This month:

Richard Briggs of Sherbourne, Dorset, describes his groundhopping adventures during the month of Sept 1988

If you would like to send in an article for this page, please write to us now!

MY MONTH, SEPTEMBER 24 TO OCTOBER 22

My groundhopping over these four weeks has seen me at five different grounds in three counties.

An attractive FA Trophy first qualifying round tie at Taunton Town took my fancy on September 24. The Great Mills League side's opponents were Beazer Homes League team Dorchester Town.

The Magpies totally outclassed their hosts and a 15 yard shot from Peter Merrall gave them the lead. Taunton soon missed a penalty and Dorchester scored the only other goal of the game before the interval through Peter Loveridge.

The attendance at Taunton's Wordsworth Drive ground was 250, although the appalling weather could have put paid to a bigger attendance. Taunton issue quite a good programme for 30p.

The next Saturday, I went to Great Mills League Tiverton Town's splendid Ladysmead ground for an FA Cup first qualifying round tie with Merthyr Tydfil.

A crowd of 700 saw Merthyr win 1-0 with a dubious penalty from Paul Giles 17 minutes from time, but little Tivvy bombarded the Martyrs' goal for much of the game, which was played in bright sunshine.

Ladysmead has a superb playing surface, a lovely social club and a big grandstand and is just off Tiverton town centre. Programmes cost 20p and high quality tea is served in china cups.

The next Wednesday, I went to Huish to see Yeovil Town take on Newport County in the first round of the Club Cell Cup. Newport won 5-4 in extra time after being 3-0 down with 15 minutes of normal time left.

The game will be etched on the memories of the 1,810 people present for years because the referee sent off five players and booked several others!

There was much debate afterwards about the referee. It can be argued he was overzealous, but all the offences he noted were bookable, or indeed dismissable.

October 8 saw me at Chard Town's barren Town Ground for an FA Vase preliminary round game with Westbury United. The Town Ground has a nice social club, where tea costs just 12p, and a reasonable programme is issued for 20p. But the pitch has a bad slope and little cover.

Both sides play in the Great Mills League, but Westbury, from the lower division, caused a shock with a 4-1 win. The attendance was approximately 80. The White Horse Men completely dominated the game and could have had a couple more goals.

The following Saturday, I went back to Ladysmead for Tiverton versus Devizes Town in a top of the table Great Mills battle. Tivvy won 3-2, but didn't really get going until the last 30 minutes.

Another big crowd of 300 saw Neil Greening, Olive Jones and Kevin Bryant, with a penalty, reply after Andy Murgatroyd had put Devizes ahead. Eddie Gordon pulled one back for the visitors late on.

And it was back to Huish on October 19 for Yeovil versus Chatterham Town in the Conference. Chatterham ended Yeovil's eight-match unbeaten league run with a 3-1 victory in front of 2,403 people.

The Robins appeared a far superior side than their hosts and they built up a 3-0 lead before Yeovil pulled one back with a late penalty on a cold night. The match programme is reasonably priced at 40p.

Then it was off to Dorchester Town's Avenue ground on October 22 to see the Magpies entertain Welsh League big boys Barry Town in an uninspiring FA Trophy second qualifying round match.

The Avenue also has a bad slope and a bumpy pitch, and a paltry crowd of 218 saw Dorchester achieve a 1-0 win on it with a late goal from skipper Trevor Townsend.

Barry brought a lot of supporters with them and they sometimes out-shouted the home fans! Dorchester's programme is free, despite the fact that 50p is printed on the cover, and tea is 20p. There is also an excellent club shop at the turnstiles side of the ground.

An unavoury incident occurred as the players walked to the dressing rooms after the game. Barry players, unhappy at a refereeing decision that should have seen Townsend sent off, threw punches at their Dorchester counterparts.

RON JONES' PROGRAMME SCENE

BY THE MAN WHO KNOWS HIS
NON-LEAGUE

welcome to another programme column, where I will be reviewing another selection of non-league programmes from this season. Before I begin this month's review I would like to mention a couple of things which may be of interest to collectors of non-league programmes. Firstly, the programme catalogue is now available containing a large selection of 1988-89 non-league books for sale at reasonable prices. We hope to be publishing it every 1 or 2 months from now on, updating each one with new stock. If you would like a free copy, just send us a large a.s.c. to Ron Jones (Programme Catalogues) 28 Tappin Road, Walsingham, Norfolk, NG24 1JA. There are quite a few unusual programmes on the shelves like those which that are quite hard to obtain programmes from abroad, especially those who compete in the FA Vase, so to make sure you get in first, send for your catalogue today. Secondly, our large selection of programmes, together with our "Ground-Copper Magazine" still will be at the Great New Year Fair at the start of January - to watch this column next month for full details.

Now to the reviews for this month. KINGS LYNN have improved tremendously their programme for 1988-89, and although it costs 50p, contains 36 pages, with a striking red, blue and yellow cover design, and although there are 20 pages of advertising, it does have value in interesting items. There is a short three round-up, a full page on the visitors including local people, a page of action photos, a review of the previous Saturday's results, and the centre pages are taken up by statistics including results, appearances, scorers, etc. There is a quick quiz, a full page devoted to the club shop, a look back to 5, 15, and 25 years ago, a general non-league round-up, reserve team page, etc. All in all, it is good value for money, and a lot of work has gone into the production. From the 1988-89 season the offering has changed, and here is proof that it is not only programmes that come out of this level. A 50-page book is given away with the admission only, and although some have half columns of adverts, it is not a bad effort for a club of this size. This season's front cover is in blue or glossy white paper, containing an old photo of the team from 100 years ago with the Liverpool & Liverpool Challenge Cup. Inside, there is a box from the manager, with the team line-up dutifully on page 5, followed by a few brief notes about the visitors, and then a page of club news. The rest of the issue consists mainly of fixtures, results, quiz and reserve team notes. Next up we have LUTTERWORTH TOWN from the Leicestershire Senior League, which is priced at 40p including admission. There is certainly not a lot of reading matter in this programme, but it is still a valuable addition to the collection. There is an attractive green and black glossy cover, with a further 12 pages of adverts inside. For the earlier copy against Wigan Athletic there was a photograph sheet in the centre with just the team line-ups hand-written, plus date of the match and the competition. What a shame that having had such a good outer cover printed, consisting of 16 pages containing mainly adverts, little has been done inside to catch that. Although as I have already said, it is one for the collection, I'm sure that something better could have been done to replace the hand-written team line-ups in the centre of the programme. But at least it is a programme, and for that we must be thankful. Anglian Combination Leaguers NORWICH UNITED produce a 12-page programme printed throughout on white glossy paper. The front cover has a black and white team photo, with a yellow background which is quite eye-catching. For the review copy v. Harlow Town in the FA Vase, there is a page of Secretary's notes, followed by a league table, and then a three-page feature on the visitors, including pen-pictures and history of the club. Then comes a feature about Harlow's cup run from 1979 in their centenary, when they reached the 4th Round proper after disposing of Leicester City and Southend, finally losing to Watford after a struggle. The team line-ups are on the back page. Although quite heavy on advertising, this is another club who have only been issuing for a couple of seasons, and again it makes a very welcome addition to the collection.

SALISBURY are issuing a 44-page programme for 30p, with a glossy cover in blue. Although at least 30 of the pages are adverts, there is still plenty to read in this one. There is a manager's column, Supporters Club page, quiz, Southern Scene round-up from the local area clubs, a page looking back at previous encounters with the visitors, with the teams printed in the centre. This is then followed by results, statistics, two pages of action photos and the news desk page to complete the issue. Although Salisbury's crowds are very small, this is not a bad effort for 30p, and it does represent good value for money.

Our final programme this month is from BACKWELL UNITED of the Great Mills Western League. They have a 16-page effort, again included with admission. The cover is printed on glossy paper and is in yellow and white, with the club name at the top, followed by the club crest and ground name in blue. The opposition, date and competition is printed in the form of a sticker which has been carefully placed over the words "Season 1987-88" so they are obviously using up stocks of old covers, and why not! Inside, there is a page giving a brief history of the club, followed by a page written by Editor Mike Stone, and for the review copy against Bristol Manor Farm, there is a small piece on the visitors including an action photo from one of their matches. Then comes fixtures, results, scorers etc, with centre pages reserved for the team line-ups which are dominated by the now familiar Great Mills adverts that are a feature of most clubs in this league. The rest of the programme mainly consists of adverts, although there are details of coming fixtures, a look back at the League Cup results of Backwell United since 1983 (this programme reviewed is for a League Cup tie), Press Talk where a match report is cut out from the local newspaper, and a full 1st and 2nd round listing of the draw for the League Cup. There is quite a bit of advertising in this programme, but as it is included in admission, there cannot be too many complaints.

WELL, THAT'S IT FOR ANOTHER MONTH. IN THE NEXT ISSUE, DUE OUT JUST BEFORE THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS, I WILL BE REVIEWING ANOTHER SIX NON-LEAGUE PROGRAMMES FROM THIS SEASON, AND I WILL TELL YOU ABOUT THE GIANT NEW YEAR FAIR AND TELL YOU HOW YOU CAN PICK UP SOME AMAZING BARGAINS ON THE BIG DAY FROM OUR STALL.

AND DON'T FORGET, IF YOU HAVE ANY UNUSUAL 1988-89 NON-LEAGUE PROGRAMMES THAT YOU WOULD LIKE US TO PUBLICISE/REVIEW IN THESE PAGES, SEND THEM IN TO USUAL MAGAZINE ADDRESS NOW. WE CANNOT RETURN PROGRAMMES, SO ONLY SEND SPARE COPIES. SEE YOU NEXT MONTH.
